

WEDDED IN EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL

A pretty ceremony in St. Andrew's Cathedral at 8:20 last evening united in marriage Miss Josephine Winfrey Barracough and Mr. Percy John Harwood, in the presence of only intimate friends. Rev. Canon Mackintosh performed the churchly rite of marriage. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nettie Barracough as the bridesmaid, and the groom was served by Mr. Malcolm Macintyre, as the best man. The ushers were Mr. John Catton and Mr. Croll. Mrs. Barracough, sister-in-law of the bride, gave her away in marriage.

The cathedral interior was prettily decorated, this being the artistic handiwork of Mrs. E. D. Tenney and Miss Catton.

The groom is a member of the cathedral choir, and his fellow members were all present to watch him join the ranks of the benedictines.

Following the wedding the bride and groom, and a number of intimate friends, drove to the Moana Hotel, where a wedding supper was enjoyed. Mr. Harwood is the Assistant Superintendent of the local office of the Pacific Commercial Cable Company, and is a member of most of the English and Scottish athletic organizations.

NO FRIEND LIKE AN OLD FRIEND—He will always help you in time of need. It is the same with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is an old and tried friend in many thousands of homes, and like other old friends, can be depended upon in time of need. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., agents for Hawaii.

CARMEN RING RETIRING EMPLOYEE

The employees of the Rapid Transit Co. assembled in their waiting room yesterday evening to present Mr. E. M. Campbell, the company's bookkeeper, with a tangible token of their high appreciation of the excellent attitude he has at all times and in most trying circumstances exhibited toward them. The gift was in the form of a massive gold ring set with diamonds and sapphires, emblematic of the strong bonds of fellowship and respect he had engendered toward him in the minds of all with whom he has come in contact. The presentation was made by Mr. P. E. Tesh in a good speech, in the course of which he paid tribute to the sterling qualities and exceptional characteristics of Mr. Campbell.

Mr. Campbell leaves the Rapid Transit Company to take a position in the new gas company's office.

PRESENTIMENT

That He Would Die Came True to Mr. Johnson.

When the late Harry Johnson, who had for fifteen years been a resident of Honolulu, prepared to bring his two boys to this city to have them educated, he had a presentiment that some dread unforeseen thing would happen and told his wife and two daughters, whom he left behind, of his apprehension.

That they might not be left with complicated legal matters on their hands in case of his death he sold his home and vast plantation in the Sandwiches, placing the money in bank to their credit.

He and his wife went from this city to the Islands, but always cherished the idea, after their sons' birth, of educating them here. He arrived several days ago and stopped with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Martin, at 1221 East Third street, and put the boys to school. Mr. Johnson was about ready to return to his family, but taking suddenly ill died. The remains were buried from the Scottish Rite Cathedral, on Broadway, yesterday. From the Cincinnati Enquirer of January 9, 1905.
